An acoustic treat of rare offerings fronted by the dynamic award winning Tracy K, one of very few female harmonica aces with tremendous stage presence and a beautiful smoky, powerful voice that can growl and purr all at once. Jamie Steinhoff sings with grit and soul, bringing early 20th century fingerstyle and slide guitar knowledge and expertise of Hill Country, Delta and Piedmont persuasions. An acoustic treat of rare offerings, their history boasts performances from festivals to house concerts, from Manitoba to Memphis. Their number one album of five star reviews entitled 'Canned Heat' weaves a tapestry of music from laid back front porch blues to rollin and rompin rags, laden with masterful guitar work, harmonica and rich vocals. With an honest realism they do a very fine job of taking you back to simpler times, leaving you with a smile on your face and a song in your heart.
