Manitoba's Tracy K has been exciting crowds as a lively festival and event class-act for over thirty years. With nine awards for her expressive singing, excellent songwriting, and exceptional harmonica skill, her contemporary repertoire of original material invokes deep dives into early twentieth century jazz and blues with informed influence by Billie Holiday, Sippie Wallace, Koko Taylor and Bonnie Raitt. Four albums with five star reviews and hitting no.1 on radio charts, her music has brought tour dates across Canada and the US. Some standout highlights include the Memphis International Blues Challenge, the Toronto Blues Society Women's Blues Revue, Harmonica Workshop, and Talent Search, plus a Western Canadian Music Award 'Blues Artist of the Year' nomination. Tracy K tours as a duo specializing in early twentieth century blues and as a dynamic powerhouse blues act, and hires the best players available.
